Feeder Calf Grading and Marketing Short Course
Thursday August 27, 2015 (1:00-5:00 p.m.)
Carroll County Agricultural Center
900 Newnan Road, Carrollton, Georgia 30117

1:00  Welcome and Introductions

1:10  What Dictates the Value of My Feeders? / Grading Demonstration
    David Garcia, USDA-GA Dept of Ag Market News Service, Thomasville, GA

2:10  Preconditioning Calves: Adding Pounds and Improving Profit by Managing Health
    Dr. Brent Credille, UGA College of Veterinary Medicine Assistant Professor in the Food Animal Health and Management Program, Athens, GA

2:45  Break and Refreshments

3:00  Nutritional Strategies to Adding Value to Your Feeder Calves
    Dr. Lawton Stewart, Beef Extension Specialist, Athens, GA

3:45  Knowing the Market and its Opportunities
    John Henderson, 30 Years of Experience as a Superior Livestock Auction Representative for the Southeast, Rome, GA

4:15  Getting Bigger Returns from Your Bull Investment
    Jason Duggin, UGA Beef Extension Specialist and Calhoun Bull Evaluation Coordinator, Calhoun, GA

4:45  Wrap-up and Evaluations

Cost:  $10 per person. Registration and payment due by August 24th

For more information, contact Richard Littleton or Paula Burke at 770-836-8546

Name(s):________________________________________________________
Farm:________________________________________________________________
Address:____________________________________________________________
Phone:_____________________________ Email:______________________________
Number of people attending ________ Total payment enclosed _______

Checks can be made payable to Carroll County Extension/4-H
Mailed to UGA Extension Carroll County, 900 Newnan Road, Carrollton, GA  30117